TYRONE MILLING CO. IS FORMED AT DUNDEE

Purchase Water Rights, Several Houses and Thirty Acres of Land Along With the Mill.

Dundee, March 11.—Joseph O. Huey, Melvin Dyke, Newton Howell, Charles De Camp, Lyman Disbrow and Fred Sebring have purchased the Tyrone Roller Mills and formed a new company, for which incorporation papers have been made out under the name of the Tyrone Milling Company, Inc.

The property purchased is a four-story wooden building, with a complete equipment of flour-making machinery, as well as machinery for making cornmeal, buckwheat flour and ground feeds. The company has also purchased the water right, three houses and lots, besides thirty acres of land.

As the water power is not sufficient during the dry season of the year, the company will install a new engine in the near future to supplement the water power. A new dam will probably be built during the coming year.

Household Goods

Mrs. A., Mrs. B., and Mrs. C are from time to time advertising in these pages individual items of furniture that are not worn out, nor are they even old or out of date.

They dispose of certain household furniture about so often, that they may make room for other pieces of furniture that have in some way met their fancy, and which they have bought—or as often is the case, the party selling is moving out of town. You can pick up the very best of bargains from many of these advertisements, and then furnish your own home almost like new at the very smallest cost.

SELF-CONTROL GREAT ASSET

Foozle in Golf Causes Grievous and Abiding Wound—Overzealousness Given as Reason.

"Greater," said Solomon, "is he that ruleth himself than he that taketh a city."

To foozle in golf is to encourage giving up one's great soul. It is a grievous and abiding wound to the sensitive for which he invariably curses himself roundly and takes to sackcloth and ashes. When her lord returns from the links his spouse knows well by his sour dejection that he has sinned ignominiously, he who thought he was master of himself. At such times he will snarl at his best friend, even as the wrongdoer is at war with the world. Overzealousness, known in golf as pressing, by which one tries to do more than one is able, is a common and fatal fault in golf, as in all other things.

Business Manager Bobby Quinn of the St. Louis Browns, having taken stock of his outfield talent, finds that all he has bats from the left side of the plate, whereupon he announces that he is in the market to buy or trade for a right-handed hitter who can also catch flies.
